ALL SCHOOLS GROWING
 Increase Figures Are Taken
as of Nov. 4th From Opening Day

Supt. Richardson D. White declares that if any one questions the tremendous growth of the city schools from day to day he should consult the registration figures in his office which show that the schools opened in September with an enrollment of 2850
and on November 4 had 3176 pupils,
an increase in two months of 326
students.

Taken by schools the figures show:

PREMIER BRIAND IS ELOQUENT IN OFFER CUT FRENCH ARMY

Balfour Applauds Frank Expression by French
Leader Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—France, with the world's largest army, is ready to cut its effectiveness in half.
With this official declaration by Premier Briand, the arms conference today began discussion of the third major task—limitation of land armament. The cut in the French army effectiveness could be made, Briand said, through a bill in parliament decreasing the period of compulsory military service from three to one and one-half years.

France, however, needs a strong army because of the Premier said.
German "menaces," the Premier said.
Italy, with an army of about 200,000
men, will make further reductions
soon, Senator Schanzer, her chief delegate said.

The United States, with its army
of 157,000 men, is not faced with the question of limiting land armaments, Secretary Hughes said, indicating that the American delegates believe this country's land force has been cut to the minimum.

Baron Kato pledged that Japan's army would be cut to the lowest point consistent with her national safety.

Great Britain did not promise any definite reduction in her army.
Belgium, Baron de Cartier said,
has already reduced her army to the minimum, considering her national security.

All the nations expressed sympathy with the position of France in Europe, but Balfour of Britain said Briand's speech was "not hopeful for any solution of the question of land armaments."

Secretary Hughes then briefly replied for the United States:

"No words ever spoken by France
have fallen upon deaf ears in the United States," he said, amid applause. "The heart of America was thrilled by France's valor and sacrifice. It is evident from what Mr.
Briand has said that what is essential, is the will to peace, and that cannot be until the institutions of liberty are safe."

"May I say to Mr. Briand, that there is no moral isolation for the defenders of liberty and justice."

Hughes assured Briand that the American people would read his speech with understanding. What is needed to make progress possible is candor and frankness such as Briand employed.

"Then the will to peace may have its way," said Hughes.

Without attempting to outline at this time detailed practical means for land disarmament, Hughes said he felt sure the expressions from various powers made it certain that the conference could find ways of dealing with it.

The conference then sent the question of land armaments to the committee on armaments, composed of the heads of delegations of the five leading powers. Adjournment was then taken, subject to Hughes' call.

Note the Subjects That Are Treated on Editorial Page

A quotation from Plautus (254-184 B. C.) and one from Theodore Roosevelt. An editorial dealing with China, another on the Newberry case, still another on the Arizona law fixing capital punishment as the penalty of train robbery. Others on traffic conditions and California eggs in London.

Dr. Frank Crane writes on "The Infinite." James W. Foley has a listening post full of interest,
Charles Kingsley's "A Farewell,"
is the song of the poet and Henry James has several clever paragraphs. The Washington Post is quoted in the Eastern point of view column. Della Stewart writes on imitations. Under "Comment on the Day's News," Henry James discusses Mr. Wilson's dream and a number of other topics. Under the "Do You Know That?" column it says that a single bill of paper money can carry as many as 100,000 bacteria.

This is a mighty good editorial
page to read—and to read regularly.

BRITISH EDITORS WARN JAPANESE

Declare Their Nation Would Side With America in Event of Any Clash

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Great Britain
would be certain to join the United States in the event of a war between America and Japan, the Times declared today, in demanding abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The Daily Express also urged Japan to yield to Hughes' program for limitation of naval armaments.

The Times asked editorially whether Japan does not think it would be wise to abandon the Anglo-Japanese alliance in view of the fact that war between Great Britain and the United States is impossible.

"The question arises with Japan
as well as with us," the Times said.
"Whether in these circumstances it is desirable to preserve the treaty.
Japan knows it cannot benefit her in the event of war; she knows we would certainly be compelled to side
against her."

Discussing the proposed ten-year
naval holiday program, the Daily Express said:

"We hope Japan will yield. Any nation obstructing peace will receive and deserve the world's censure. The world is surfeited with Prussianism."

"The heart of America was
thrilled by France's valor and sacrifice. It is evident from what Mr.

tial, is the will to peace, and that

Married Women Should Keep Up On All Live Subjects

Miss
Anne
Mathews.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—To be of the greatest service to her community and her country, the married woman should keep herself informed on questions of public interest and never allow herself to become indifferent to politics.

This was the opinion of Miss Anne Mathews, Democrat, elected to the highest-salaried political office a woman has ever held in this country. She was the successful candidate in New York county for the office of Register, a post paying $12,500 a year.
The salary of Alice Robertson, congresswoman from Oklahoma, is only $7500 a year.

Miss Mathews ran on a platform
the chief plank of which called for
"a business woman for a business
job." She will admit no sex disqualification for political positions,
but has no patience with the society dilettanti that have invaded the realm of women's politics. "The butterfly woman is useless in politics,"
she said.

The office of register is not picturesque. Miss Mathews will have jurisdiction over a force of 144 workers, the majority of whom are men.
The register's office records transactions in real estate and other activities requiring official record and keeps a file of notaries public signatures.

"I do not propose to change the policies now being followed in the office," she explained.

"Women have the inherent ability which fits them to discharge any public function as well as men can do it. Frequently they are handicapped by lack of business experience. Women, since the beginning of time, have been keeping the home

and raising the children, while men have had unlimited opportunity to engage in civic affairs. A business training is the greatest asset for any public officer—man or woman. The person who has been employed understands best how to give the people full value for their money and how to get the greatest quantity and best quality of work from those under him.

"People who are compelled to work especially if they like their vocation, are the ideal public officials.
I believe there are great possibilities for the married woman in political roles—the woman who has raised
children that have gone their way,
who retains her youthful enthusiasm,
but, after years of isolated domes-ticity, is out of touch with current events. Many medical men hold that the female brain, under such circumstances, retrogresses beyond recovery. This theory is ridiculous. I cannot refute it scientifically, but I know many women who have 'come back' after raising families. Children should broaden a woman, never cramp her. Of course, the mind becomes flabby through disuse, but the married woman's mental sluggish-ness is no greater than that which affects anyone after years of mind inertia.

"Married women, though occupied with their homes, should keep abreast of affairs from the moment of the ceremony. Thus they will be of greater service to their children
as well as their community."

Miss Mathews was for 20 years a fashion designer and has traveled extensively.

Late News Flashes

willing, Iowa will accept an invitation to play the California football eleven at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses,
New Year's day, the Iowa athletic board decided here
today.

TOKIO, Nov. 19 (Delayed).—The Asahi, one of the leading Japanese dailies, today urged the government not to insist upon a 70 per cent ratio for its navy over the 60 per cent proposed by American Secretary of State Hughes
at the Washington arms conference.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—E. L. Remlin, aviator, today holds a new altitude record for the coast. Leaving Rogers airport here late yesterday, Remlin in a 45-minute flight attained an altitude of 23,750 feet and returned to the ground with his windshield coated with ice. The previous altitude record was 19,500 feet.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—Madalynne Obenchain's hearing on a writ of habeas corpus demanding that she be granted immediate trial in connection with the murder of John Belton Kennedy was postponed today by the appellate court. Decision on the writ will be made Wednesday morning. The postponement was granted at the request of Lecompte Davis, acting chief counsel for Mrs. Obenchain.

SONS OF REST GIVEN HOT RECEPTION BY OFFICERS

Los Angeles Police Join
With Glendale in Raid of Old Barn Saturday

"Adversity makes strange bed-fellows." This old adage was proven Saturday night when local officers assisted by officers from the Los Angeles police department raided an old barn at Broadway and San Fernando road that had been reported as a
"hobo roost."

The raid was made late at night
and all of the occupants were asleep when the officers arrived. On the first floor a negro and a Japanese were found sharing the same blankets and upstairs two white men were sleeping with a 12 year old boy, who said that he had run away from his home in Salt Lake City, Utah, recently. The boy was sleeping between the two men and completely covered with blankets in an attempt to hide from the authorities.

All of the men and the boy were turned over to the Los Angeles police as the barn where they were found is just over the line in Los Angeles.
It is said that the men and the boy have made this barn their home for the past two or three weeks and that enough provisions to feed them for several weeks were found. There were hams, sides of bacon, potatoes, bread and canned goods galore scattered around.

According to the boy he ran away
from his home in Utah about a month ago and since that time has been traveling with tramps. He said that he had been living in the barn about three weeks. He also was turned over to the Los Angeles police and is being held in juvenile hall pending word from the Salt Lake authorities.

Several complaints have been made to the Glendale police who could do nothing, as the barn was outside the city limits. "It is thought that the guests of 'hotel de bum' are responsible for many of the 'petty thefts'
here recently.

PAIR LANDS IN JAIL AFTER TAKING ON TOO MUCH LIQUOR

Police Arrest Both Sunday Night Following Complaint by Resident

A new car and a pint of whiskey landed Frank M. Shaedler, 318 North Louise street, in jail Sunday night
and caused the arrest of his companion, Anna Riley of Hollywood, on charge of intoxication. The girl was later released on $25 cash bail.

At 10 o'clock Sunday night a report was made to the police that a man with a car was acting in a suspicious manner on Columbus avenue between Wilson and Broadway. Officers investigated and found that the man was drunk. They also found a new car sitting by the side of the road and near the car they found Shaedler, who, according to the police, was helpless from drink. In the car they found Anna Riley and what remained of a pint of whiskey.
The girl also was under the influence of liquor.

The couple were brought to the police station, where the girl was admitted to bail and told to appear in court at 3 o'clock today. Shaedler was unable to make the grade
up the stairs to headquarters and was helped. He was locked up to await a hearing.

MASS MEETING TO DISCUSS TWO SITES

Central Avenue School be-Scene Further Discussion
of Matter

A mass meeting called by a committee headed by W. B. Kelley, will be held tonight in the Central avenue school to discuss the subject of the proposed high school site. Two sites on which options have been secured,
have been submitted to the high school board of trustees. One site is on West Doran and Kenilworth and known as the Gray site, the other is at the corner of East Broadway and Verdugo road.

The location of the school will be determined by a vote to be cast when the bonds are voted upon. The date of the election has not yet been set.

STUDENTS READ
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 21.—A census just completed by Radcliffe College of its 600 enrolled students reveals that 96 per cent of the young women read the newspapers regu-

MISSING PEOPLE TO BE SEARCHED FOR BY POSTAL DEPT.

Local Postoffice to Cooperate in Plan to Locate Missing People

In his precedent-smashing campaign, Postmaster General Will Hays has taken another step toward humanizing the department. He has announced that the department will establish a "Port of Missing Men," where relatives will be assisted in their search for missing people. An order establishing this department and instructing officials in the various postoffices was issued Sunday by Mr.
Hays.

According to George Hallett, superintendent of the Glendale branch of the Los Angeles postoffice no such order has been received here and until it is received, they cannot act.
When the order is given, which it no doubt will be in a few days, he and his employees will be glad to cooperate. Superintendent Hallett said:
"It certainly will be glad to help anyone in any way possible to locate missing relatives, but until I receive instructions from the Postmaster General I will have to continue the present policy of giving no information regarding addresses on file here. As soon as the order is received I will do everything in my power to help."

"Many times I have been appealed to give information that might lead to the discovery of a loved one who is missing and could not give this information because the regulations prevent it. I think that this order by Mr. Hays is one of the best that he has issued and I think that every postmaster, superintendent and employee in the postoffice department will be glad to cooperate."

Following is the statement and notice issued by Postmaster General
Hays:

"Never before in the history of the postoffice department has an attempt been made to assist in the location of persons who have become lost from their relatives and friends.
As another step in bringing the postoffice nearer to the people and making it a little more human, Postmaster General Hays is publishing the following notice in the Postal Bulletin:

"The postoffice, the port of missing men.

"To all postmasters: It is my wish that the machinery of the postal service be placed at the disposal of those searching for loved ones who have dropped from sight. Every year thousands in this country are reported missing; children, young men, young women, husbands and wives; some never to be heard of again by their distressed families and friends. The postoffice, with its organized facilities reaching into every corner of the land, may be of practical service to the distressed. Therefore, they are willingly offering the postoffice department for this purpose. There is no intention of interference with private affairs or to act as a collection agency. Postmasters will scrutinize and investigate carefully each case reported to them and, when convinced of its genuineness, will make such inquiries of other postmasters as the circumstances warrant and advise the interested relative or friend."

THIRTY CASES OF CELERY DESTROYED

Local Health Officers Find
Large Amount Treated
With Poison Solution

Sanitary Inspector Hollenbeck and his assistant, Paul Wells on Friday condemned and sprayed with coal oil 30 cases of celery that had been sprayed with arsenic solution. The celery was the property of Glendale fruit and vegetable stands and being held by the retailers pending a chemical analysis before offering it for sale. Every crate of celery is tested by the sanitary inspector before it is allowed on sale. If a trace of arsenic is found the entire crate is condemned. The fruit and vegetable men are co-operating with the inspectors by taking samples from celery crates for the test. The cost of the test is borne by the dealer.

GET MARCEL WAVE IMPROVE ONE'S MIND

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 21.—It is pretty generally agreed that beauty may be stimulated by scientific treatment. But, inquire a number of Columbus residents, how can a marcel, or shampoo, cause a girl to be credited with a perfect percentage at her mid-term or final exam?

The query is prompted by the following ad., inserted in a university paper:

"We are causing co-eds to pass 100 per cent exams. Our scientific way of treating face and scalp stimulates mental effort."

Floater Committee—The floater committee of the Glendale chamber of commerce will meet this afternoon in the headquarters of the chamber on West Broadway for the purpose of deciding upon some definite line of action in connection with the float to represent Glendale at the next Tournament of Roses in Pasadena. The decision that will be reached this afternoon will be presented to the city council tomorrow night.

Rental Department—The General Realty Co. is opening a rental department at its headquarters, on North Glendale avenue. Mrs. Mary E. Lindsay, recently of San Diego, will have complete charge of this department. Mrs. Lindsay has had years of experience in the renting of homes in various parts of the country and she will doubtless be a valuable addition to this enterprising realty firm.

SCHOOL LEADERS IN SESSION TODAY

Big Auto Parade is Included
in Education Week
Program Here

This afternoon the various committees appointed to represent the grade schools and the committees representing the high school will meet in joint session at 3:30 at the high school to outline a program for Education week from December 4 to 10. The general plan as tentatively agreed upon includes a big auto parade Monday in which all the pupils of all the schools will be carried over the leading streets of Glendale as a demonstration of the magnitude of Glendale schools.

After that all the schools will keep open house throughout the week but they will specialize each day on some feature, such as art, domestic science, athletics or music, special programs being given on those days. At the same time the regular work of the school will be going on and after visitors have taken in the specialties it is expected they will drop into the arithmetic, geography or other classes to see how routine work is carried on. At the meeting today it is probable a program for the high school and the day schools will be adopted which can be published in calendar form for the information of parents and all others interested in the schools. Besides these visiting days there will be a mass meeting some evening during the week which will be addressed by a fine speaker.

Interesting Lecture—A theological lecture will be given this evening at the I. O. O. F. hall, 111 East Broadway, by Mrs. Helen M. Stark of the Krotona Institute, which will deal with reincarnation and tell "how we can remember our past lives." No admission fee will be charged.

Name Evans—At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Endicott & Larson Realty Co., E. W. Evans was put at the head of the house department. W. M. Plumb was given charge of the lots and business property department, and J. A. Endicott was appointed manager of the acreage and subdivision section of the company's activities.

Great Picture—When the spectator witnesses the showing of "The Great Impersonation," George Melford's latest Paramount production, which will be shown at the T. D. & L. theater today, he will be carried on the wings of fancy to many different sections of the old world.

ARTIST BLOTS OUT PART OF CITY SIGN

Seven Dollars Reward for Identity of Person or Persons Guilty

Who's the goat? A short time ago someone holding some official position in Glendale erected a sign at the intersection of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road reading like this: "Cross Over Here for Glendale," the idea being to divert traffic from the left to the right side of the road. Someone living in the south end of the city did not like the inference that that section is not a part of Glendale. So, in the wee hours of the morning—or night—this party very quietly and cautiously "snuck" up to that sign and "did willfully and maliciously" use white paint to cover the word "Glendale," leaving the sign with the wording "Cross over here."

The city officials are thinking seriously of offering a reward of seven "beans" to anyone bringing about the arrest and conviction of the miscreant.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

VIDAL RUDAN
Vidal Rudan passed away at his home in La Canada Sunday morning at the age of 33 years, leaving a widow. He was a native of Austria and had been in California about ten years. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at the Pulliam & Kierfer parlors.

ALVIN A. FALL
Alvin A. Fall, who had lost all his relatives and was quite alone in the world, died Monday morning at the county hospital where he had been for the past month. He lived for a time in Glendale and friends here did, what they could for him. He was 84 years of age. Funeral services, which will be private, will be held Wednesday morning at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

JOHN BUTLER
John Butler, husband of Mrs. Lauretta Butler and father of Ernest Butler, passed away this morning at the family home, 516 West Milford street. He is also survived by two daughters, one of whom lives in the State of Washington, the other at Tipton, Mo. Deceased was 74 years old and was a native of Ohio. Funeral arrangements which will be in charge of the L. G. Seavern Company, await word from relatives.

AN EASY WAY TO GET YOUR TURKEY MEAT

Watch Tuesday's Glendale
Daily Press for Further Information

The Glendale Daily Press is going to make someone, a present of a fine turkey for Thanksgiving. It will not cost one cent and only a few minutes' effort on the part of some alert person. Turkeys come pretty high this year, but the generous response of the business men and others to the Thanksgiving edition of the Glendale Daily Press, in part for the benefit of the disabled war veterans at Thornycroft, is sufficient inducement to justify the expenditure. The full particulars will appear in the issue of Tuesday, November 22. Don't fail to get Tuesday's issue as early as possible, as it may mean you will get the big turkey absolutely free.

WORKERS DO MUCH FOR SALVATION ARMY

One of the latest additions to the Glendale Salvation Army fund campaign "100 at $10 or over club," is Mrs. L. King, a widow, who is also a working woman.

In sending her contribution, Mrs. King writes: "I have seen the Salvation Army in many places and I know its wonderful self-sacrificing and effective work, and I am glad to sacrifice something for that grand organization."

Money contributed to the Salvation Army during this drive is money well spent. It is to be used by the organization in caring for the orphans of former service men who gave their lives to the United States during the World War. If you have not contributed to the fund, send your money to the Salvation Army Home Service headquarters, Glendale.

Eighth Place—Sunday afternoon Miss Carol Duncan, president of the Glendale district of Christian Endeavor, attended a general committee meeting at the United Presbyterian church in Los Angeles. She was interested to find that the Glendale organization has eighth place in the county. Recent reports which she has received from the different societies promise an even higher rank.

Seavern Company, await word from relatives. Mr. Butler was injured June 2 in an automobile accident at the corner of Salem and Central and never entirely recovered from the effects.

CALIFORNIA DOES 66 PER CENT "GOOD"

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—California physicians are three times as good fellows as those elsewhere in America. Or anyway, they're three times as wet. Tom Brown, assistant prohibition director, says so, and he states that about 22 per cent of the doctors in the nation prescribe alcoholic medicine. But in California the average is 66 per cent, according to Brown.

The prohibition director's office issues doctor's prescription books to bona fide doctors. Each doctor is permitted a book containing 100 blanks every 90 days. The office, since the first of the year, has issued 4,054 books to the 6,000 California physicians.

Fifteen hundred books have been issued to doctors in San Francisco alone, Brown said.

Nothing pleases a little man more than an opportunity to act big.

GOVERNOR SHOUP CALLS MEN'S BLUFF

WALSBERG, Colo., Nov. 19.—Martial law was today formally proclaimed in Huerfano county, scene of the strike of union miners employed by the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. The proclamation, signed by Governor Shoup, was read in public by Col. Patrick Hamrock, commander of the state rangers. The martial law proclamation was issued after union leaders declared they intended to test the legality of the governor's first order, sending troops into the district.

LOVE'S LABOR FOUND

"Do you agree with the poets that love is all in all?"
"No, I do not," replied the celebrated divorce lawyer, "but I don't mind acknowledging that if so many people didn't make mistakes in diagnosing the symptoms of love, I would not be paying a large income tax."

... CHATS WITH ... MARTHA ALICIA

CAN YOU REALLY IMAGINE

Thanksgiving without mince pie? Nor could I, so I stopped in at the FANCY BAKERY, 142 N. Brand Blvd., this afternoon and left my order for two of their wonderful, home-made mince pies! Everything made at the Fancy Bakery is always of the very purest and best—and in fact, Mr. Walsma told me himself about the mince-meat they have—it is made in their own sanitary plant of the best ingredients it's possible to buy! You know, for a good mince pie that's all the Fancy Bakery is charging this year. Many of their customers never even think of bothering with their own baking at the holiday time, but just depend on Mr. Walsma, for they know he is absolutely dependable, never selling anything but the tastiest and most reliable of pastries! And don't misunderstand me, for mince pie isn't the only thing they are famed for—no, indeed, the high standard prevails throughout the entire bakery—even with cakes and breads. But don't forget to leave your order for a mince pie early this week—remember, Thanksgiving will be here on Thursday!

Lace blouses will hold first place for dressy wear. Some of the smart trimmed ones are fashioned in dyed Irish and deep cream chintilly.

OH! HOW FORTUNATE are we GLENDALEANS to have in our midst a firm such as ZITE-LEEN'S DRY GOODS STORE, 140 N. Brand Blvd. They have just been able to secure the agency for Munsing Underwear for men—a feat that is quite commendable as there are but two or three dealers, even in the city, for this much-wanted line! Mr. Zite-Leen now has a full stock of Munsing Wear in all sizes—and he is the exclusive dealer in Glendale!

Bananas crushed with a fork, liberally sprinkled with sugar and served with cream make a nice breakfast dish for children.

PERHAPS YOU'VE BEEN FORTUNATE ENOUGH to have tasted a pumpkin pie from the ELITE SWEET SHOP, 136 S. Brand Blvd., already? Well, if not, you have most certainly missed, not "something," but a great deal! They are positively the most wonderful pies of their kind I've ever tasted—spiced just right and made with a wonderful crust! At Thanksgiving-time, of course everyone's thinking of all such goodies—but let me advise you—better order yours early at the Elite Sweet Shop, for they have a number of orders in already, and you don't wish to take any chances on being disappointed. Call Mrs. Bigens today and let her know just how many you'll need. I know you will enjoy them for they are simply delicious—really, the best pumpkin pies I've ever tasted!

Add chopped dates to your cornbread mixture.

HAVE YOU SEEN that cute little three-room home on North Jackson street for sale by JAMES W. PEARSON of 108 North Brand? It has bath, instantaneous water heater and is across the street from that $30,000 home. Mr. Pearson is offering it for $3150.

Gather the early blossoms of herbs and keep in paper bags. When cake-mixing, sift the soda thoroughly with the flour.

JUST VISIT THE QUALITY DOUGHNUT SHOPPE of 104 W. California Ave. if you doubt what I've been telling you of their wonderful doughnuts! They are positively the most delicious I've ever tasted—and only 25c a dozen, too! Or, better yet, just call Glendale 229-J and order some delivered to you—they are fresh every day!

Taupe or moire silk stockings are worn with the black patent leather strap shoes.

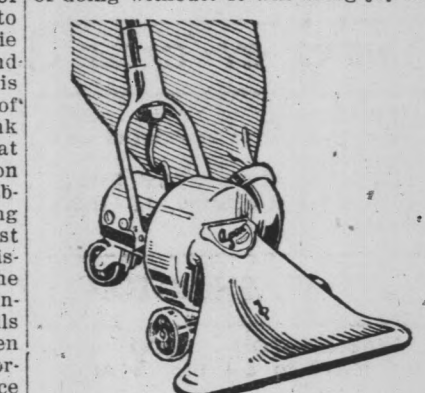

YES, IT'S REALLY TRUE—at last Mrs. Walcott has received those wonderful fancy combs about which I've been telling you! And, do you know—they far surpassed even my expectations! They are positively the most beautiful combs for evening wear that I've ever seen! At WALCOTT'S BEAUTY SHOPPE, 136 S. Brand Blvd., you'll find just the comb for your hair—whether it be light or dark, red or gray—and I know you'll be delighted.

Low-heeled pumps, in fact low heels generally, are more often worn than high ones.

IF YOU ARE IN NEED OF A NEW MATTRESS I'd advise you to go right down to the GLENDALE CARPET AND MATTRESS WORKS of 1411 S. San Fernando Rd.—for they have some dandies for sale. There are all kinds and all sizes—made of felted cotton or floss, and covered with really attractive material. Stop in and look over their large stock of wonderful mattresses. I know you'll find their prices reasonable and the mattresses unusually desirable!

MOTHER'S HARDEST WORK

has always been that of cleaning! Why not relieve her of the worst of it for a Christmas present? It can be so easily done with an Apex Cleaner from the JEWEL ELECTRIC CO. of 200 E. Broadway. With an Apex she will be able to get her cleaning done with little effort and that is why, when her Apex is her first electrical servant, it is the last she would think of doing without! It will bring joy and comfort to her by bringing first aid in daily cleaning duties—it is an aid that will be indispensable for comfort and cleaning satisfaction. The inclined nozzle permits you to clean in the most awkward corners and to get the dirt from under low objects, close around the legs of chairs and tables and close up to baseboards. She needn't even go over a stretch of carpet a second time with the Apex because the divided nozzle distributes the dirt-hungry suction evenly all the way across. Stop in at the Jewel Electric Co. today and pay a deposit on an Apex for Xmas delivery.

Barley water for children should be made with one teaspoon of prepared barley to one and one-half cups of water.

Use engineers' waste on your mop stick, and you will always have a clean mop.

THERE ARE SPECIALISTS IN EVERY LINE!

Just as one doctor is a specialist on one particular disease and another follows an entirely different line—so is there a difference in plumbers! It is better not to have anyone attend to your plumbing than to allow an inexperienced and unskilled laborer to "tinker" with it! Mr. Sheehy of the GLENDALE PLUMBING CO., 134 S. Orange St., is truly an expert in his line, having installed some of the largest heating and plumbing systems in this country and Canada! Indeed, you are fortunate if you're able to get Mr. Sheehy to attend to the work for you, for whatever he says is necessary you may depend on! And so it is with his assistants, all able men—skilled in their work, and qualified to handle any branch of the work for you and give you the most satisfactory results. And, you know, in the long run it really is an economy to have an expert do the work for you, for when it is "done" you may depend upon it that it has been well done, right straight through. The Glendale Plumbing Co., too, is usually reasonable in its prices. Call them and ask for an estimate on your work—I am assured you will be more than satisfied with the results obtained!

Nut bread may be iced and decorated with half nut-meats. Shortcake is delicious put together with mocha cream filling.

CALL GLENDALE 217—the INDEPENDENT ICE CO. of 106 E. California Ave., and order a bottle of their White Rose Spring Water—today. You'll feel just ever so much better after drinking this fresh, live water! Try it!

Pros and cons connecting the circular skirt persist and give one a reason for contemplating this style for fall.

YOUR "STOUTNESS" won't be the slightest disadvantage when you have your gowns designed at THE ORIGINAL DRESSMAKING SHOP, of 115 E. Broadway, for their patterns are all paper models from Worth, Callot, Jenny and Hickson in New York. They are able to design a most stunning dress for you that will actually make you look slender! And they remodel your old material into the newest and smartest styles! You'll find their prices most reasonable, too!

When washing a sweater sew up the buttonholes, thus preventing their being stretched out of shape.

IT'S SUCH A SATISFACTION to be able to trade at stores where you know you are getting the very best for your money, isn't it? Just such a place is STEVENS' PAINT STORE, at 219½ E. Broadway—the local agents for the Patton Sun Proof Paints and Varnishes. You may be sure that you can absolutely depend upon what Mr. Stevens tells you—and if you're not quite ready to buy, stop in and he'll advise you of the best you can get for the money you have to spend. They have wall paper, too, from 15c a roll up.

Special Meeting—There was a special meeting for women and girls at the Central Avenue Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the subject being "An Examination of the Heart."

Buy in Glendale—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fich, who run the Toloma Creamery Co. at Eighth and San Julian streets, Los Angeles, have purchased through the agency of Doner, Hemenway & Burn a very complete home, a colonial bungalow on West California.

Boys Control—H. Clinton has purchased the interest of his partner, R. M. Richards, in the confectionery store on South Brand, known as the Puss 'n Boots. This confectionery was opened a short time ago and is rapidly winning favor among the confection lovers of the city. "Business is good," says Mr. Clinton.

Business Brisk—Johnson & Cox, the automobile experts on West Colorado, are busy and state business is picking up rapidly. They specialize in painting autos, trimming, upholstering and top work and have the reputation of doing fine work.

Basket Ball—Basket ball teams are being organized at Glendale High. There is excellent material including Wilfred Cline, Victor Colburn, and Bill Goertz, who were on last year's team; Bob McCourt, Neal McIver, H. Wimmer, Dale Griffith, "Doc" Bryant, George Jansen, Pete Fruhling, Robert Roach, Theodore Haig, Tom Morgan, and several others.

Benefit Party—Mrs. Frank Salma, of 361 West California avenue will give a dance and card party Tuesday afternoon and evening at Odd Fellows' hall, 111 1/2 East Broadway. There will be prizes for cards and also a door prize. The affair is a benefit for the Holy Family Catholic church and Mrs. Salma will be assisted by the women of the parish.

Fathers' Night—Tonight the Intermediate P. T. A. of which Mrs. W. A. Kulp is president, is to enjoy "Fathers' Night." A brief informal program of music and greetings by Superintendent White and Miss Carrie Noble, the principal will be followed by a social hour and the serving of refreshments.

Teachers' Club—The City Teachers' Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at Intermediate. The chief feature of the program will be the report of the N. E. A. convention at Des Moines, by Superintendent R. D. White, who attended as the delegate of the club.

Hear Good Talk—Sunday, November 20, the Dynamics Club of the Glendale Presbyterian church was deeply moved by a message from Mrs. Eaton of Tennessee, a noted lecturer, who portrayed the perfect man and the high standard to which men must lift themselves if they would be of service to a world in need. More messages on mankind of this kind will be given in coming meetings of the club and all young men in the community are urged to join.

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Aleshire of Northport, Wash., arrived in Glendale Saturday for an indefinite visit with their son, R. M. Aleshire of 403 West Palmer avenue.

Mrs. R. L. Milligan of 114 East Park avenue spent Friday with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Milligan, in Los Angeles.

Marion Maxwell of 400 West Stocker street, who has been seriously ill with scarlet fever, is fully recovered and hopes to be out of quarantine before Thanksgiving.

Dr. F. N. Arnold of 211 East Lomita avenue left Saturday for a few days' business trip to El Centro.

Miss Eleanor Sargent, who is attending school at Alta Loma, near Ontario, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sargent of 448 West California avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garner of 523 North Maryland avenue have moved into their new home at 925 North Brand boulevard.

ROBINSON BUYS IN SYCAMORE CANYON

Will Subdivide 77-Acre Tract for Home Sites in Near Future

Mayor Spencer Robinson recently closed a deal whereby he becomes owner of 77 acres in Sycamore canyon. The tract has been used as a rifle range by the Glendale companies of the National Guard. Mayor Robinson says that he will subdivide it as soon as he can get engineers at work and will make an attempt to have the property on the market by January 1 in lots ranging from 50x150 to an acre. Prices on these lots will range from $800 to $3000 and $4000. There will be a $3000 to $5000 building restriction on the property.

In addition to subdividing the property Mayor Robinson will have several beautiful streets laid out, making it one of the beauty spots of the city. There are few places in the valley that are as scenically perfect as this tract. From any part of the tract the entire San Fernando valley is visible, spreading out like a panorama of Wonderland. Other subdivisions aggregating 450 acres will be put on the market to the east of the tract just purchased by Mayor Robinson within a few months.

Will Settle Here—P. J. Hayselden, proprietor of an electric-steam machinery manufacturing concern of Los Angeles, has, after looking over Southern California for a long time, decided to move to Glendale. He says that living in any other part of Southern California except Glendale is simply "camping out."

Kentucky days, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pearson, 644 East Harvard street one day last week. Mrs. Burns is now living in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor and family of 506 North Jackson street, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Havens of Los Angeles.

Miss Mary Alice Ferry of 614 East Acacia avenue, who is attending Ramona convent at Alhambra, will be home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Oakland, motored down to Glendale and were the house guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson of 246 North Orange street.

Mrs. O. E. Von Oven and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson attended the reciprocity day meeting of the Pasadena study club held at the Shakespeare club house on Thursday.

Ralph Hutchinson of 246 North Orange street, returned this morning from an automobile trip to Palo Alto, where he and several other members of the Southern Branch of the University of California attended the Stanford-U. C. football game. They report a splendid trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mercer and Mr. and Mrs. George Mercer were the dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bacon of 900 South Glendale avenue.

LA CRESCENTA VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS

People Voted Saturday on New Lighting District Without Dissent

LA CRESCENTA, Nov. 21.—The election held here Saturday for the new lighting district carried unanimously. This is the second election held for street lights without one dissenting vote. The new district includes all of Montrose; Ocean View avenue to Michigan avenue; Los Angeles avenue from the end of the car line to Honolulu avenue, and Honolulu avenue from Montrose to Ramadale avenue.

E. Angier, assisted by Rev. H. A. Kelso, was host at a wienie roast at Glenrose park last Friday evening, to an interested group of young boys, among whom were Lawrence and Archibald David Potter, Raymond Maxwell, Stuart Collins, Wesley and Verne Rose, Charles Marsh, Robert Kelso, Robert Telfer, Harold Swanson, Elliot Waddie, Leyland Mead, Isadore and Fred Goldsberg. Mr. Angier is planning to organize a Boy Scout troop and will call a meeting next Friday evening.

One of the enjoyable events of the week-end for the younger set was a hike to Mt. Washington, last Friday. Those participating were Misses Caroline Erhart, Sara and Jessie Conlin, Sybil Grimes, and Robert Kelso, Ernest Erhart, Walt Young, Robert Hendrix, William Eastman and Mrs. F. C. Hendrix.

SEWER DISPOSAL PLAN IMPOSSIBLE

Los Angeles Has Bigger Problem Now Than it Can Well Handle

According to a late report of the Los Angeles special sewerage disposal commission received by City Manager Reeves the matter of Glendale receiving assistance from Los Angeles in the disposal of sewerage in the event that it voted to annex to the larger city, appears to be an impossibility. According to the report, the sewer system is already overloaded and is inadequate to handle the problem. The use of the same system by Glendale in the event of annexation would be almost an impossibility.

Annexationists in Glendale have based their argument for merging with Los Angeles on the fact that Glendale has no sewer system and that by going into Los Angeles, this city would be provided with the use of the disposal system now in operation there. According to the report the system of Los Angeles will have to be enlarged to care for the present sewerage of that city.

The city of Glendale is preparing to install the activated sludge system which has been tried by several cities in the east and middle west and found to be successful from both an economical and efficiency standpoint. According to officials of the city, the report of the Los Angeles sewerage disposal commission blasts the last ray of hope of the annexationists in regard to expecting help from Los Angeles in the matter of sewers.

See this 1921 THOR before you even think of buying any other washing machine

WHEN you buy a washing machine you want the one that will save more time than any other. This wonderful new Thor will save you an extra hour.

It is the fastest washing machine made. Also the most thorough, for it uses the same revolving, reversing cylinder washing method that gained for Thor the reputation as the Leader of the World. Over 600,000 Thors in use.

You also want the machine that gives longest service. One look at the sturdy construction of this machine will convince you. Even the ball bearing, swinging wringer is made entirely of metal.

$10.00

Will bring it tomorrow

Don't wait another week for your Thor. Have it for your very next washday. Begin right now the saving in laundry expense which will pay for your machine over and over again.

GLEN EYRIE OFFICERS

GUESTS OF MRS. NAUDAIN

The 1921 officers of Glen Eyrie Chapter, O. E. S., were delightfully entertained by Worthy Matron Mrs. E. R. Naudain and Worthy Patron W. W. Worley with a five-course dinner in one of the private dining rooms of the City Club, in Los Angeles Saturday evening. Sprays of pepper berries and pink carnations were used in decoration and at each place was a little corsage bouquet of sweet peas, violets and Cecil Brunner roses. The place cards bore a Thanksgiving decoration and the favors were little bottles filled with confectionery. Covers were laid for Worthy Matron Mrs. E. R. Naudain, Worthy Patron W. W. Worley, Associate Matron Mrs. Fannie Parke, Treasurer Mrs. Alice Carvel, Secretary Mrs. Annette Booth, Marshal Mrs. Anna Rattray, Chaplain Mrs. Eva Vesper, Pianiste Miss Franc Kinch, Conductress Miss Mildred Lyon, Associate Conductress Mrs. Jennie Phillips, Mrs. Doris Thomas, Ada, Mrs. May Warrick, Ruth, Mrs. Davis, Esther, Mrs. W. W. Worley, Martha, Miss May Cornwell, Electa, Mrs. H. A. McPherson, warder, Leroy Redd, sentinel, and Mrs. Redd. Following the dinner the party spent the evening at the Morisco, witnessing the clever comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen."

LLOYD LANTERMAN

WAS HOST FRIDAY

Lloyd Lanterman of La Canada entertained the members of the Beta Sigma Mu fraternity on Friday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lanterman, the only guest from Glendale being Robert E. Rowley, president of the organization.

ISABEL YATES IS

GIVEN DINNER PARTY

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Isabel Yates Saturday night, when her mother, Mrs. T. R. Yates, of 329

West Acacia avenue, entertained at a dinner party in honor of her birthday. The guests sat in the darkened living room and when Miss Yates returned from work, she flashed on the light and was greatly surprised to find several of her friends there.

The dining table was centered with a large bouquet of pink baby chrysanthemums and fern. At each place was a tiny pink basket filled with candies and the place cards were tiny hand-painted baskets. When Miss Yates seated herself at the table she found several useful and pretty gifts at her place.

After dinner an enjoyable evening was spent at dancing and cards. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gordon of Los Angeles, Miss Ruth Ryan, Donovan Yates, Robert Sullivan and the guest of honor, Miss Isabel Yates.

ST. MARK'S GUILD

BAAZAAR A SUCCESS

The ladies of St. Mark's Guild were fortunate in securing for bazaar purposes the entrance to the Downing & Cox nursery on South Brand boulevard, with a beautiful collection of potted plants, shrubs and flowers for decorative purposes, which provided an altogether charming setting. They were also fortunate in being early in the field, and were so well patronized that early in the afternoon their stock was so far sold out that they abandoned their original intention of continuing open in the evening.

The returns to date indicate a profit in the neighborhood of $200, to be applied on the purchase price of the handsome new church carpet which the ladies have acquired, and which will be their Christmas gift to St. Mark's.

In charge of the various booths were Mrs. M. Baker, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. J. S. McOmber, Mrs. W. Farber, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Gallor, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. John Cate, Mrs. E. H. Parker, Mrs. Cory, Mrs. Speck, Mrs. England, and Mrs. Card. Mrs. Ben Holbrook had general charge of the bazaar.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

MEETING ON FRIDAY

A meeting of the executive board of the Glendale Music club was held at the high school at 4 p. m. Friday at which Mrs. John Allen Legge was elected financial secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Vivian Webb who gives up the office because of home duties. Mrs. Spencer Robinson, Mrs. Dora Gibson, and Miss Veda Knapp were named as the committee in charge of general arrangements for the concert of December 2 at which Alice Gentle, the grand opera star, will be the soloist.

Mrs. Calvin Whiting is to head the group of ladies who will assist at the door the night of the concert, and James Smith of the Junior Auxiliary will have charge of the ushering.

The board voted to hold all seats of members on the night of the concert until 8 p. m. If they are vacant at that time and non-members desire to purchase them, the club reserves the privilege of filling them in addition to the one hundred seats reserved for the outside public.

The price of seats to non-members was fixed at $2 which is considered very reasonable compared with the price of $4 a seat charged in Santa Monica for a similar concert and the $7 a seat charged in other cities for the privilege of hearing Miss Gentle in Carmen.

A communication was read from the Los Angeles Music Teachers' Association inviting musicians of Glendale to attend an old-fashioned party to be given at Kramer's hall November 23, a social and dance in costume. Mrs. Freeman Kelley will have charge of the decoration of the hall for the Alice Gentle concert.

Members of the casts of the three one-act plays presented by the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club Friday evening at the Glendale theater, were entertained after the performance, with their wives and husbands, at a jolly supper given by Mrs. J. Roger Bentley at her home, 715 North Central avenue, with Mrs. W. L. Andrews, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. Roy Kent, Mrs. Harry Gibbs and Mrs. Ray Galvin as assisting hostesses.

After their strenuous evening, the spread of assorted sandwiches, salad, coffee and cake was gratefully received and the opportunity to "talk it over" was enjoyed. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Galvin, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Sherman, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Malvern C. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Kent, Wesley Kent, Doris Packer, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Bachman, Booth Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Y. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bode, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Max Green, Mrs. Mabel Ocker, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Findlay, Shirley Chase, Winifred Parker and the organist of the evening, Paul Carson.

Members of the junior auxiliary of the Glendale Music Club met Saturday evening at the home of Miss Eloise Truitt at 317 West Doran street. The program was given by the boys of the organization and included two numbers by the orchestra, "Artist Life" (Strauss, and "Sunset Land."

Thomas Wood, accompanied by Winifred Parker on the piano, played "Slavic Dance" (Bohm).

Glen Hurd, accompanied by Veda Knapp on the piano, played on the violin Beethoven's "Minuet in G" and Dvorak's "Humoresque."

As a final number the boys' chorus sang "The Silent Song of the Stars," each vocalist singing a different melody. Edward Stockbridge was to have given a vocal number but was unable to be present.

The next meeting of the juniors will be held December 4 at the home of Miss Dorothy Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jarchow of 420 Patterson avenue were pleasantly surprised Friday evening when a number of old friends, some of them from Los Angeles, came to bid them a fair voyage on the sea of matrimony on which they had embarked October 31 in San Francisco.

The friends brought with them as a wedding gift a beautiful Haviland china dinner set decorated with the Gotham pattern and the initial "J." It was presented with a felicitous speech by Mr. J. Bushnell.

After a very pleasant social evening, light refreshments were served and toasts to the bride and bridegroom were drunk with hearty congratulations. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Detmer, Dr. and Mrs. Cook, Charles Miller, Dr. Strait, J. B. Bushnell, Miss Isabel Hulbatt of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bellue, and the host and hostess.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Reiterman of Coronado street, Los Angeles, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mabel, to Harrison W. Frank of Glendale at a beautifully appointed shower on Saturday evening. Miss Reiterman, formerly of Chicago, is instructor of music in the Hollywood high school, and Mr. Frank, who has been a local resident for about 15 years, is connected with the Local View Co. of this city.

Mr. Frank's mother, Mrs. Harriett Frank, has presented the young couple with a beautiful six-room house on Benton way, Los Angeles. The wedding will take place sometime early in December.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Trapoco Presbyterian church had an excellent meeting Sunday night, led by Harry Richardson. It was a Thanksgiving meeting, the theme being "God's Goodness." At the close of the meeting a praise service was held.

The Endeavorers will hold a meeting tonight at the home of Mrs. S. H. Wilcox of 1924 South Gardena avenue. Walter Sullivan, the president, will conduct, and plans will be considered to help the church and the society to a higher place in the Four-Square contest. At present the society ranks fifth in the Glendale district.

A very delightful evening was spent Thursday at the hospitable home of Mrs. Nanno Woods and family, 122 West Milford. Readings by the hostess, selections on the beautiful Usona phonograph, and cards were enjoyed by the guests. Prizes in five hundred fell to Mrs. George Person and Mr. Herbert Morton.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. Person, Mr. and Mrs. C. Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. H. Morton of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. E. Bent, Mr. and Mrs. Platt and Miss Betty of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Woods and the Misses Dorothy and Kathleen Woods.

The executive committee of the City Teachers' club was entertained delightfully at luncheon last Saturday by the president, Miss Carrie Noble.

A jolly hound was enjoyed over the table at which covers were laid for Mrs. Ryan (Miss Mitchell, Miss Ball, Miss Corey, Miss Saxton, Miss Midcalf, Miss Salstrom, Miss Chase, Miss Hutchinson, Mrs. Bullis and Miss MacIntyre. Following the luncheon an executive board meeting was held.

Members of the Foster Bridge club were entertained Friday with an elaborate and beautifully appointed luncheon by Mrs. A. H. Lapham at her home, 415 West Broadway.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. C. E. Norton, Mrs. Mabel Rudy, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. E. W. Hayward, Mrs. L. P. Abell, Mrs. F. B. Morse and the hostess. High score was made by Mrs. Hayward.

The Fortnightly Bridge Club met Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton, 920 East Mountain street, Miss Annie McIntyre substituting for Mrs. J. I. Wernecke, who is in the East.

Yellow chrysanthemums were used in decorating and refreshments fitting to the Thanksgiving season were served.

THANKSGIVING IS SERMON SUBJECT

Rev. Edmonds Points to Reasons for All to Give Thanks to God

A sermon for the Thanksgiving season was given at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning by Rev. W. E. Edmonds, who used for his text two passages: "Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him." (Gen. 40:23.) "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

The first text brings to mind Joseph in the Egyptian prison on a faked charge. His fellow prisoner, the chief butler, released through his instrumentality, afterwards forgetting to make plea for him to the king and so leaving him two more years in prison. Afterwards he regretfully remembered, made the plea and procured Joseph's release.

What a nation of forgetters we are! When we come to this season, then we remember ourselves. "Forget" is almost the same as "forgetten." The word today is "remember." The saddest thing in the world is that men of God can forget what has been done for them. It needs that today we shall be shaken out of our forgetfulness of numberless blessings that we have been too busy to recall. And then let us go out with uplifted heads and say "I will remember."

First, don't forget the great blessing of health. Authorities tell us that as the regular thing three million of our population are sick. The hospitals are always full. Suffering aside, the economic loss through this cause is counted as two billion dollars a year. Don't fail to thank God for health. Closely connected with this is sleep. Do you appreciate that blessing?

Don't forget to thank God for your sight. There are 100,000 blind in the United States. And we ought to be thankful for our mental soundness. There are 400,000 in our institutions for the mentally afflicted. The awful pace of our country puts a great strain upon many. Give thanks that you do not have to suffer poverty. There are 500,000,000 who lie down tonight without a real bed. In India, 60,000,000 will lie down not knowing where breakfast will be found.

Don't forget to thank God for your spiritual blessings. This body we will very soon be done with and put off; soon the trumpet of God, then there will be no more death. But the blessings that are spiritual have no end. I know Him! I have His companionship! The blessings that come through the prayer life; the riches of His love; the knowledge that my name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life, and sometime I will enter on all the glorious inheritance that is mine.

God doesn't want your money without you. If He has you, He has all you have. How much are your blessings worth? Your gift will have wings that will carry it to the far places to meet need. Blessings are going to fall on us in compensation for the gifts we are giving. A man had a $50,000 farm. God brought rain, and heat 90,000,000 miles to make it fertile. He went into the bank to figure up his income tax; he deducted from it one dollar given to charity and five dollars given the Red Cross.

Foley's Friendly Fancies

A POPPY FROM FLANDERS

A poppy from Flanders—it lay in my hand,
A delicate thing, if so withered and dried;
A poppy from Flanders—brought here from the land
Once red with the blood of the brave men who died.

A poppy from Flanders—its color grown pale,
Its leaf crisped and sere, on its petal the rust
And the mould of decay—just a blossom so frail
That the touch of my finger might crumble to dust.

A poppy from Flanders—so tiny a thing,
And quivering there in the palm of my hand,
Ethereal, light as a butterfly's wing,
A thousand leagues far from its own field and land.

So still there it lay, and so tiny and pale—
Then quick it flamed hot with the color of blood,
And there in my palm was a crimsoning trail
And trickle, through poppies all trampled in mud.

Then came the sharp clashing of steel upon steel,
The rumble and roar of the unlimbered guns,
That shrieked and that thundered, the creaking of wheel—
Saw now how the crimson stream gathers and runs!
And men sprang from firesides whose spirits leaped high,
And shells tore the earth as the heavens were spanned
With great arcs of fire till blood-red was the sky—
And the poppy from Flanders that lay in my hand.

A poppy from Flanders that flamed and that burned
Like the souls of its sons, come to hallow a trust,
Then rain fell like tears on white faces upturned,
In the night and the dark and the blood and the lust.
And the pale petal quivered as though it were stirred
By that same dauntless spirit that blood-drenched its land
For honor's own sake, and the eyes of me blurred
Till I scarce saw the poppy that lay in my hand.

A poppy from Flanders that lay in my hand,
That grew in some blood-bought and glorious spot,
That told me the tale of its own field and land,
When the petal of it flamed forth blood-red and hot.
And a Voice sounded forth o'er the guns and the lust,
Of the fight, vast and deep as the primal Command:
"Who fears but to die if he shall keep his trust?"—
A poppy from Flanders lies here in my hand!

LYL EFERGUSON IS KILLED DOING STUNT

YUMA, Ariz., Nov. 21.—The body of Lyle Ferguson, "dare-devil" actor who met his death here late yesterday while doing a "thriller" for a motion picture company from the Thomas H. Ince studios, was recovered early today from Laguna dam. Ferguson met his death in an attempt to ride through one of the dam siphons on the outpouring torrent. His skull struck a concrete lateral, crushing it instantly. The entire "death scene" was said to have been photographed by cameramen, who did not realize until later that the actor had been killed. Ferguson had successfully performed the "thriller" several weeks ago for the Robertson-Cole Pictures corporation.

NATION CAMPAIGN EPISCOPALIANS

Pasadena Man Tells St.
Marks Congregation How
to Cooperate

Episcopalians who attended service in St. Mark's church Sunday were rewarded, not only by a very impressive service, but by hearing Mr. McArthur, a layman of Pasadena, tell some stubborn facts.

The Episcopal church is now conducting a nation-wide campaign and Mr. McArthur explained the need for its success. His plea was prefaced by a statement by Rev. G. H. Cornell, acting rector, who declared that the one great element behind civilization today is the religion of Jesus Christ and that if men of the church do not rally around the flag of Christianity, civilization will fall. The interesting address of Mr. McArthur was supplemented by excellent numbers by the choir, under the direction of D. Ripley Jackson.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

PLENTY OF GALL

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Nov. 21.—Deputy United States Marshal John Kennedy has found the man "that got all the gall in the world."

"This man," says Kennedy, "was fined $200 for violating Mr. Volstead's law. He hasn't paid the government yet. The other day he came into my office and 'dunned' the government of the United States for $150 due him for his service as a witness during a grand jury session. My records show that this bird has been paid $1610 as a court witness during the present term."

M'GROARTY GIVEN BIG WELCOME HOME

Poet of Verdugo Hills Home
From Trip to Spain and Old World

TUJUNGA, Nov. 21.—Standing in the midst of a large group of his friends and neighbors assembled beneath the spreading oaks of Golandrina Park in the green Verdugo hills, Sunday, John Steven McGroarty, poet, author and philosopher, was welcomed home from his recent journey to Spain and other parts of the Old World.

Known to a large portion of the world as the author of the Mission Play, and the historian of California, Mr. McGroarty is especially dear to the folk whom he calls his neighbors, and it was an assemblage of these people that greeted him on his arrival in Tujunga at 12:30 Sunday.

The Millionaires' Club of Happiness and Contentment, the organization which Mr. McGroarty has made famous by his writings, arranged a more or less impromptu celebration to welcome the most noted of their members and his charming wife back from their long trip. Although the exact time of their arrival was not made known until Saturday, the crowd which assembled overlooked the chairs which had been placed in the park and massed solidly behind Mr. and Mrs. McGroarty, who stood smilingly in the center, although raising a more than occasional handkerchief to their eyes. Banners of welcome bearing the inscriptions, "Don't leave us again John," "You look good to us," "The Verdugo hills have been long some without you," "When is Alfonso coming?" and others were placed before the group.

Wilmet Furcher, president of the Millionaires' Club, presided, and after a short speech of welcome, called on various residents of Tujunga for talks.

F. M. Ashby spoke of the interest which the neighbors had taken in the journey of their friend and how it seemed as though a Divine Providence had followed him in all his travels. On behalf of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce Mr. Ashby presented to Mr. and Mrs. McGroarty the key to the hearts of the Tujungans in the shape of a beautiful floral piece. A check on the Bank of Joy, brought into being by the Millionaires' Club, and a set of pictures of the members of the club, including one of Mr. McGroarty's famous yellow cat were also presented.

President Theobald of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce congratulated the town on Mr. McGroarty's arrival home, and spoke of his many merits as a neighbor and citizen.

A quartet composed of Madame Rossi Gish, soprano; Miss Catherine Snyder, contralto; C. E. Shields, tenor, and A. Shields, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Kimpel, sang very effectively "Auld Lang Syne," joined by the audience, and "Sweet and Low."

Mrs. W. H. Weiman, introduced as the mother of the town, and Mrs. L. May Dean, voiced the happiness of the women on the safe arrival home of the author and his wife.

Addison Wells, one of the directors of the Tujunga Valley bank, and Major P. J. Blake, gave short talks. Wallace M. Morgan, editor of the Verdugo Foothills Record, presented a resolution which, after welcoming Mr. McGroarty home, asked him to invite any other kind or potentate who might wish to confer with him to the Verdugo hills.

Mr. McGroarty when called upon to give an account of himself, said that it was almost impossible for him to speak with the lump which was in his throat, but promised to talk upon his trip in the future. With his voice throbbing with emotion he said that this welcome, together with the one he received upon visiting his home in the old blue hills of Pennsylvania, were the two greatest moments in his life, and that after such an expression on the part of his friends a man might well spend the rest of his years above any earthly troubles which might visit him.

After his brief address the program was closed with the quiet singing "The End of a Perfect Day."

When asked how it seemed to be home Mr. McGroarty replied with the enthusiasm for which he is so well known, "Bully." To judge from the expressions of joy from the rest of the Tujunga people, that is the way they feel about it also.

The Gospel Mission, erected by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wynn on their property on north Sunset boulevard, was dedicated Sunday. A large crowd was present, many coming from surrounding communities. "Father Wynn," as he is known, is an old-time circuit rider. The Mission is to be undenominational.

The Quien Sabe club, an organization of local young people, met Friday evening at the home of Miss May Manley on North Pine street for a business and social meeting. An election of officers resulted in Addison Wells being chosen president, Miss Stella Wieman vice-president, and Miss Alice Kelly, secretary-treasurer.

FAIR ENOUGH

MACON, Mo., Nov. 21.—Colorado is the best state, declared Mrs. William H. Anderson.

Missouri is the best, asserted her husband. Without seeking the medium of arbitration, Mrs. Anderson "packed up and went to Colorado to live."

"She can stay there," asserts Anderson, who has sued for divorce on the grounds of desertion.

Call for Books—All those who have membership books for the Red Cross are requested to send them together with the money collected to Mrs. C. L. Peckham, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call, at her headquarters in the Glendale branch of the L. A. Trust & Savings Bank on North Brand by Tuesday or Wednesday.

Buys Corner—Through the agency of Doner, Hemenway & Burn, W. A. Horne has purchased the southeast corner of Brand and Laurel, 50 by 155 feet.

THINGS FOR WHICH TO GIVE THANKS

Pastor Cole of Christian Church Relates the Many Blessings of Mankind

"Things to Be Thankful For" was the subject of Rev. C. A. Cole's sermon at the Central Christian church Sunday morning. The text was, "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not His benefits." Said the speaker in part:

"We are apt to count up our neighbors' blessings and forget our own. The gifts of heaven are very evenly distributed, if we but realize it. Material gifts, such as riches, homes and the like, are not referred to. These often prove to be curses rather than blessings, for they wear us away from God. But the best and highest things are very evenly parcelled out. Think of the many blessings common to the great majority of us—health, sleep, sight, hearing, reason and so on. Then, in a larger sense, we can be thankful for the great prosperity that has visited our church and people, enabling us to construct a fine new house of worship and to do much for others."

The subject of the evening sermon was "Achievements," the fifth of a series on "Place and Plan of the Disciples of Christ." Starting out with the statement that recent statistics showed that 60 per cent of the wealth of this richest nation in the world is owned by Protestants, the speaker dwelt upon the great responsibility thus entailed upon the great religious body of which the Christian church is a part. Referring briefly to the "Restoration" movement, started near Washington, Penn., 112 years ago, by Thomas and Alexander Campbell, Rev. Cole reviewed the work of their coadjutors, Barton W. Stone, Walter Scott, Raccoon John Smith and others, which brought the membership up to more than 100,000 by 1850. Since then it has increased to nearly a million and a half. A great missionary work, extending into a dozen or more nations and well over the home land, has been built up. More than a dozen great institutions of learning, such as the College of the Bible in Lexington, Ky.; Drake University in Lexington, Ky.; Bethany in West Virginia; Hiram in Ohio, once presided over by James A. Garfield, later President of the United States, and the baby of them all, the California School of Christianity in Los Angeles, have been established also. But the greatest achievement of all has been the bringing about of a sincere desire for the unity of God's people among a vast majority of His followers.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTE AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
